Labor Economics
Urban & Regional Economics
Public Finance
Economic History

The Department of Economics invites applications for one tenure-track position at the assistant professor level to begin August 2010. A primary field in Labor Economics is required. Desirable secondary fields include Urban and Regional Economics, Public Finance, and Economic History. Candidates must have a PhD in economics or ABD with expected degree completion by August 2010. Teaching experience is required. Must demonstrate teaching excellence, a strong research potential, and a commitment to service to the University. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in Labor Economics, along with Principles of Economics. The closing date for applications is November 20, 2009, or until the position is filled. To apply, send letter of application, curriculum vitae, unofficial transcripts, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and three letters of recommendation to Linda S. Ghent, Chair, Department of Economics, Eastern Illinois University, 600 Lincoln Avenue, Charleston, IL 61920. Materials may be sent via e-mail to econsearch@eiu.edu. Eastern Illinois University is an equal opportunity, equal access, affirmative action employer committed to achieving a diverse community.