The Department of Economics at the University of California, Santa Cruz (http://econ.ucsc.edu) invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant or a tenured Associate Professor position in international macroeconomics and finance. Excellence in research and teaching are the primary criteria for this position. The department has a Ph.D. program specializing in international economics, an M.S. program in applied economics and finance, and several undergraduate programs. Applicants will be expected to teach at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. The campus is especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their research, teaching, and/or service.

RANK: Assistant Professor (tenure-track) or Associate Professor (tenured)

SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications, experience, and level of appointment

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Assistant level — Ph.D. in Economics or equivalent preferred by July 1, 2009; must be conferred no later than June 30, 2010. The successful candidate must be able to demonstrate excellent research potential and excellent teaching ability.

Associate level — Ph.D. in Economics or equivalent, demonstrated excellence in research productivity and teaching.

POSITION AVAILABLE: July 1, 2009.

TO APPLY: Applicants should arrange for their vitae, a sample research paper, and three confidential letters of recommendation* to be sent to the address below. Applicants are encouraged to submit a statement addressing their contributions to diversity through their research, teaching, and/or service.

Send materials to:
International Economics Search Committee Chair
Department of Economics
University of California, Santa Cruz
1156 High Street
Santa Cruz, California 95064

CLOSING DATE: Applications must be postmarked by December 1, 2008.

*All letters will be treated as confidential documents; please direct your references to UCSC’s confidentiality statement at http://www2.ucsc.edu/ahr/academic_policies_and_procedures/cappm/confstm.htm

UC Santa Cruz faculty make significant contributions to the body of research that has earned the University of California the ranking as the foremost public higher education institution in the world. In the process, our faculty demonstrate that cutting-edge research, excellent teaching and outstanding service are mutually supportive.

The University of California, Santa Cruz is an Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Employer, committed to excellence through diversity. We strive to establish a climate that welcomes, celebrates, and promotes respect for the contributions of all students and employees.

Inquiries regarding the University’s equal employment opportunity policies may be directed to: Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Office at the University of California, Santa Cruz, CA 95064; (831) 459-2686. Under Federal law, the University of California may employ only individuals who are legally able to work in the United States as established by providing documents as specified in the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.

If you need assistance due to a disability please contact the Academic Personnel Office at 499 Clark Kerr Hall (831) 459-4300. This position description is available in alternate formats, which may be requested from Academic Personnel at (831) 459-4300.